Welcome to the EYMF 2017 Syllabus!

Here you will find all class names and codes required to complete your entry form, as well as general information regarding classes, fees and scholarships. You must have read the EYMF 2017 – Rules and Regulations to ensure a valid application is completed.

- Classes are divided by instrument genre, skill level and/or age.
- Classes are open to amateurs who have not received remuneration in excess of $2500.00 in the previous fiscal year as a result of teaching or performing music.
- In classes where there is an age limit, the applicant's age shall be determined as of January 1st, 2017.
- In classes where there is a RCM or Conservatory Canada Grade level, the applicant's level shall be determined as of January 1st, 2017.
- Adult refers to applicants 18 years of age or older as of January 1st, 2017.
- Registration fees for each class are $32.00 per class per person. In ensemble classes, registration is $25 per member to a maximum of $100.
- Open classes are open to participants of all ages, including adults.
- Composition classes imply that the applicant is to be both the composer and performer of the piece with which he/she enrolls.
- Instrument and Voice classes are for solo performers who play their instrument and sing simultaneously. Instrument & Voice applicants must enter "Ballad" and "Up-tempo" classes for scholarship eligibility.
- Workshops are non-competitive group classes with a qualified instructor. Participants should have one piece that they will perform in the workshop.
- Ensemble classes are for 2-15 performers in a variety of genres. All performers must fall within the specified age range. All performers must fall within the specified age range. Ensembles may include any conventional instrumentation (e.g. string quartet, rock band, voice and harp etc.)
- Applicants must enroll in a minimum of two classes on the same instrument to be eligible for any scholarship or prize. Applicants may be eligible for more than one scholarship if they apply in two or more classes in different instruments (i.e. 2 piano classes and 2 guitar classes).
- Composition applicants need only enter one class for scholarship eligibility.
- Adult class applicants are ineligible for any scholarships.
